ALTERNATIVE ASSESSMENT

Recall your discussion of the question on page 511:

What kinds of actions can bring about social change?

Now that you have read Chapter 17, use your knowledge of the Progressive Era to answer these questions:

- How did Progressive Era reformers recruit others?
- How did progressive reformers bring about changes in government?
- What did progressives do to bring about changes in business?
- What else might Progressive Era reformers have done to be more effective?

Explain your answers with examples.

2. LEARNING FROM MEDIA

View the American Stories video, “A Child on Strike.” Discuss the following questions in a group; then do the activity.

- What was your reaction to Camella Teoli’s accident?
- What labor practices are taken for granted today that were not afforded to people living in 1910?

Cooperative Learning Activity: In your group, imagine you are reporters covering the congressional hearing. Write two articles—one that objectively reports on the findings of the hearings, and one that shows bias in favor of the mill. Share the articles with the class and analyze how language can affect the reporting of information.
