Use your notes and the information in the chapter to answer the following questions.

Washington Heads the New Government
(pages 182–187)

1. What were the first steps taken by the Washington administration in building a new government?
2. Why did President Washington want both Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton to be among his closest advisers?
3. Why was the Whiskey Rebellion a significant event in the early days of the new government?

Foreign Affairs Trouble the Nation
(pages 190–196)

4. What were three major international issues at this time, and how did the United States respond to them?
5. How did the United States manage to stay out of war during this period?
6. How did the expanding nation deal with Native Americans?

Jefferson Alters the Nation’s Course
(pages 197–201)

7. What were some of the accomplishments of Jefferson’s first administration?
8. How did the Louisiana Purchase change the United States?

The War of 1812
(pages 202–205)

9. What events led to the War of 1812?
10. What did the Treaty of Ghent accomplish?

CRITICAL THINKING

1. CONTRASTING Create a chart listing some of the more important differences in the beliefs and goals of the Federalists and the Democratic-Republicans. Whose ideas appeal to you more?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Federalists</th>
<th>Democratic-Republicans</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. HYPOTHEIZING What if you had been your current age in 1800? What might have been some of the advantages and disadvantages of growing up in this period? Write two paragraphs describing what you like and dislike about the U.S. at that time. Provide examples from the text in your answer.
Use the cartoon and your knowledge of U.S. history to answer the question below.

1. The British cartoon above entitled “The Fall of Washington—or Maddy [Madison] in full flight” was published in 1814. In it, a character exclaims, “The great Washington fought for Liberty, but we are fighting for shadows.” The character is contrasting the Revolutionary War and —

   A. Shays’s Rebellion.
   B. the XYZ Affair.
   C. the War of 1812.
   D. Washington’s declaration of neutrality.

ALTERNATIVE ASSESSMENT

1. INTERACT WITH HISTORY
   Recall your discussion of the question on page 181:

   How can a government truly represent all of its citizens?

   Imagine that it is now 1814, and one of your former students has written to ask your opinion about how the United States has grown as a nation. Write a response in which you mention events from the chapter that show key challenges and achievements that helped to shape the young republic.

2. LEARNING FROM MEDIA
   View the American Stories video, “Recruited by Lewis and Clark: Patrick Gass Chronicles the Journey West.” Discuss the following questions in a small group; then do the activity.
   - What were some of the roles played by Native Americans in the journey of Lewis and Clark?
   - What aspect of the journey do you think that Patrick Gass found most difficult? Why?

   Cooperative Learning Activity Who do you think are the explorers of our own day? Prepare a report and present it to the class.
