

Goal:

- 1) For the student to investigate the websites for the House of Representatives and the Senate.
- 2) To learn who each student's representative is and Senator.
- 3) To discover the committees and leadership of each house of Congress.

NCSCOS:

CE.C&G.2: Analyze government systems within the United States in terms of their structure, functions, and relationships.

CE.C&G.2.6: Evaluate the authority federal, state, and local governments have over individuals' rights and privileges.

CE.C&G.3.1: Analyze how the rule of law establishes limits on both the governed and those who govern while holding true to the ideal of equal protection under the law.

CE.C&G.5: Analyze how political and legal systems within and outside of the United States provide a means to balance competing interests and resolve conflicts.

Directions:

For each house of congress, visit their respective website (see below), and find the information requested:

- a) Which party is the Majority Party in the House of Representatives? In the Senate?
- b) Which members fill the leadership roles in both houses? (Include the state from which each was elected)
- c) List all of the Standing Committees for the House of Representatives and for the Senate.
- d) List the Select Committees for the House of Representatives and for the Senate.
- e) Who are the members of Congress that represent each student in the House of Representatives and in the Senate?
- f) To what committees do each of your elected members of Congress belong?
