

A. Main Ideas. Describe the cities of the Industrial Revolution and the living conditions of the working-class.

B. Main Ideas. Fill in the chart below that contrasts the goals and life of the working- and middle-class.

	Working-Class	Middle-Class
Who are they?
What did they want?
What did they oppose?
Describe a day in the life.

C. Main Ideas. The chart below lists the people discussed in section 4. After reading the section, complete the chart by filling in the main idea behind each person's economic theory.

LEADING FIGURE	THEORIES
Laissez-Faire Economics
Adam Smith
Thomas Malthus
David Ricardo
Utilitarians
Jeremy Bentham
John Stuart Mill
Socialism
Robert Owen
Karl Marx	